

Surprises are in store tomorrow

WYCOMBE WANDERERS supporters are in for a couple of pleasant surprises at the end of tomorrow's closing Isthmian League match with Ilford at Loakes Park (3 p.m.).

It's all part of the championship celebrations Wanderers have in store. And while the club is keeping the nature of the surprises a closely-guarded secret, manager Brian Lee says the players have banded together to show their gratitude to the fans for their fine support.

Club officials issued an appeal for fans to stay off the pitch at the end of the game so that surprises can go ahead without a hitch. Afterwards, those wishing to tread the Loakes Park turf can.

Win or lose, Wycombe have the title sewn up, which is perhaps just as well. For Ilford, having rushed up the table in the second half of the season, are not to be taken lightly. Wycombe's 2-0 win at Newbury Park certainly flattered them somewhat.

A social evening is being held in the clubhouse tomorrow evening.

● NEWS of Wycombe players on the casualty list . . . both Iain MacLean and Kevin O'Brien are almost back to fitness and expected to play against British Colleges in the Loakes Park friendly on May 7.

● A CHAMPIONSHIP dinner and dance is being held at the Bell House hotel, Beaconsfield, on May 26. Tickets (£3) are limited, and vice-presidents and members are asked to claim theirs from treasurer Roger Lee as soon as possible, either at the ground on match days or at his home (tel. Hampden Row 427). Details of when tickets will be on sale to the general public will appear in 'Mid-week'.
